

The Indigenous Committee is committed to inserting Indigenous ways of knowing and being into the Alma Mater Society (AMS), as well as the larger UBC institution, by hosting events, providing support to Indigenous clubs, and advocating for Indigenous rights on campus. All Indigenous students who pay fees to the AMS can join the committee.
@indigenouscommittee

The Indigenous Lounge @ the Nest
Located on the second floor of the AMS Nest (room 2131). The lounge is an Indigenous exclusive space for students to decompress, deconstruct and decolonize. There are board games, a small kitchenette, couches, a TV and study area. Feel free to stop by or message our Facebook page (Indigenous Committee) for any information!

Unceded Airwaves is a weekly radio program produced by CiTR's Indigenous Collective: "We are committed to centering Indigenous voices and offering alternative narratives that empower Indigenous people and their stories." CiTR radio station is located on the bottom level of the Nest. Want to get involved?
Email volunteer@cit.ca | cit.ca/tag/indigenous-collective/

The Indigenous Leadership Collective (ILC) is a student group based in the Faculty of Arts and is supported by the Aboriginal Student Affairs team. ILC values friendship and fosters connections so student peers can celebrate one another and hold one another up throughout their studies. The objective of the ILC is to create a safe space for Indigenous students so that everyone can share and develop their leadership skills.
IG @asaubc | arts.aboriginal@ubc.ca

The AISA LOUNGE is a social-study space located in the Buchanan area. The Aboriginal Student Affairs advising team works in this area and is happy to chat with you about any degree planning questions you might have. Students are also welcome to just pop in to relax between classes.

Buchanan D, first floor (D-140)
Need to book an academic appt? Email arts.aboriginal@ubc.ca

The First Nations Studies Student Association is a student led organizing group that emerged from the Critical Institute of Indigenous Studies. Throughout the year, FNSSA meets frequently for discussion, as a means to deepen their roots of resistance, refusal and resurgence together. There is no official sign-up to be involved with FNSAA so if you're interested in joining, contact fnssa.ubc@gmail.com

+ MUCH MORE

UBC Indigenous Law Students Association (ILSA) Student organization created by and for diverse Indigenous students and non-Indigenous allies at the Allard School of Law.
ubcindigenous.com | ilsa.ubc@gmail.com

Museum of Anthropology
MOA is also one of Canada's largest teaching museums with faculty and staff teaching courses in museum studies, museum education, and conservation as well as Indigenous and world art. MOA offers free admission to all Indigenous people. <https://moa.ubc.ca/>

UBC Residential School History and Dialogue Centre
Explore exhibitions, browse the collections, attend an event and learn about on-going legacy of residential schools in Canada.
@irshdc | <http://irshdc.ubc.ca>

INDIGENOUS LEADERSHIP COLLECTIVE

MOA

UBC RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL HISTORY & DIALOGUE CENTRE

INDIGENOUS STUDENT SPACES ON CAMPUS

Created by Arts Indigenous Student Advising (AISA).
AISA is an academic advising team for undergraduate students in the Faculty of Arts.

Send your academic questions to the arts.indigenous@ubc.ca email
Follow Us on Social Media
Instagram: @Arts.indigenous
facebook.com/AISAUBC

FACULTY OF ARTS

AISA LOUNGE

THE LONGHOUSE

The First Nations House of Learning (also referred to as 'the Longhouse') organizes student services, programming and communications. Services include writing and math tutors, academic advising, accredited counsellors, student health nurse, and financial advising. It's open to all Indigenous students on campus (Métis, First Nations and Inuit).

Indigenous Collegia is located in the Longhouse. It's a home away from home for Indigenous students! This facility is open after hours, has a kitchen and will offer peer helping services. Come hang out!

IG @ubclonghousestudents

Xwi7xwa Library

A centre for academic and community Indigenous scholarship. Its collections and services reflect Aboriginal approaches to teaching, learning, and research. Need help finding resources for your paper? Looking for Indigenous novels, films, music, or children's books? Then visit the helpful staff here!

Every Tuesday, the Longhouse hosts a lunch for students! We hope to see you there!